No fireworks in Arizona

BY ELIZABETH HARLAN
THE SCOUT STAFF

As the fourth of July approaches there is concern about the potential use of illegal fireworks.

According to Arizona state law 36-1602 it is unlawful to sell, offer or expose for sale, use, explode or posses any fireworks. The term firework refers to any combustible or explosive composition containing more than twenty-five hundredths grain of explosive. This includes but is not limited to: roman candles, sparklers, and torpedoes.

“The extreme fire conditions at this time are the worst in history,” according to Tim Bos, a national forest fire management officer. “All it would take to start a wildfire is one careless indiscriminate spark in the right place.”

Fireworks are considered contraband and are against the law in the state of Arizona.

Fort Huachuca abides by state law on this under the assimilated crimes act,” said Maj. Daniel Orgeta, director of public safety on Fort Huachuca. The penalty for this statue is a class three misdemeanor, which carries a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars or 30 days in jail.

According to the National Forest Fire Management office the ban on illegal fireworks will be aggressively enforced, as setting off these types of devices could result in a wildfire under current extreme fire conditions.

Fines and penalties will be imposed in all cases and anyone found responsible for a wildfire may be billed for the entire suppression cost, which could be millions of dollars.

Holiday fun could be blinding

BY DR. CHRIS ROCKWELL
CHIEF OF OPTOMETRY
RAYMOND W. BLISS ARMY HEALTH CENTER

The Fourth of July is one of our nation’s most festive holidays. But it is also one of our most dangerous holidays. Raymond W. Bliss Army Health Center is helping Prevent Blindness America tell everyone about the hazards fireworks pose to both sight and life.

According to Prevent Blindness America, nearly 13,000 people are blinded, maimed, or killed annually from fireworks. More than half of those injured are children. Fireworks cause injury to more than the user; approximately 40 percent of the injuries impact bystanders.

The three types of fireworks that keep hospital emergency rooms busy during this holiday period are bottle rockets, firecrackers, and sparklers. Bottle rockets and firecrackers are miniature explosives. They can fly and blow up in any direction. Sparklers burn at temperatures exceeding 1800 degrees Fahrenheit. Giving these devices to children could mean sentencing them to time in hospital emergency rooms.

Holiday celebrations shouldn’t begin or end in a hospital emergency room. One of the reasons that fireworks injuries continue to occur is because people just don’t know how dangerous these devices can be. Often they don’t realize, until they are injured, that the risk of blindness or loss of life outweighs the excitement of watching fireworks explode.

Don’t make your family and friends remember the Fourth of July for the wrong reasons. Fireworks injuries are easy to prevent. Don’t play with fireworks. Don’t light the fuse. For more information on fireworks safety, call Prevent Blindness America at 1-800-331-2020.

Save big bucks: “club” deals at commissary

BY RICK BRINK
DEFENSE COMMISSARY AGENCY

Commissary shoppers are getting the shopping club experience this summer with a variety of products ranging from hot dogs and frozen pizzas to paper products and laundry detergent being sold in “club packs.”

Club packs, which generally offer several items of a product packaged as one unit for sale, are very popular with shoppers seeking to load their pantries. The club pack promotional program was first introduced in commissaries last year and sales showed customers liked them.

“A good deal of our customers are high volume shoppers, and our club pack program makes it easier for them to stock up on popular items at low commissary prices,” said Bob Vitikacs, DeCA’s executive director for operations and product support.

Plastic food storage bags, diapers, macaroni and cheese, coffee, soap, pet food and candy are among the items offered in club packs. They started appearing in commissaries in May and will continue to be offered through September.

The club packs aren’t hard to find. Because of their unique sizes and volume, commissaries usually set up special club pack displays, or offer them in case lot sales.

Time Out briefs

Golf tournament set

The Joint Interoperability Test Center is planning a golf tournament July 18 at the Mountain View Golf Course.

The tournament is set to begin with a noon check-in and a 12:30 p.m. start time. The tournament is open to all JITC members and invited guests. It will be a 4-person scramble format and will cost $30 per person.

For more information on this tournament call Thomas Ferguson, 538-5200; Deb Depew, 538-5093; Barry Haller, 538-5477 or Memory Holland, 533-8504.

Soccer tryouts

There will be an under age 11 select soccer team tryout. Tentative dates for tryouts are July 18-19.

Players can't have reached their 11th birthday before August 1.

The purpose of this U11 select team will be to enhance the soccer skills of players in the development of basic and advanced individual/team skills through rigorous training (hard work) and participation at higher levels of competitions with other select teams throughout the state.

There are additional costs associated with participation on select teams such as uniforms, tournaments, and travel. However, the team will have fund raising activities, and play in tournaments only in Tucson and Sierra Vista to offset some of these costs. The team will also participate in the Pima County Soccer League on Saturdays (one game each Saturday commencing in October or November)

For more information, call Terry Faucett at 538-5263 or email terryf4@mindspring.com or faucettt@fhu.disa.mil.

Art show in Tucson

Tohono Chul Park in Tucson, Ariz., will host an exhibit of selections from the Muscular Dystrophy Association art collection starting July 23. The exhibit will feature some 20 pieces from the nationally renowned collection.

The artwork to be displayed at the popular northwest Tucson desert park will include oils, acrylics, sculptures, self-portraits and murals — all created by adults and children affected by neuromuscular diseases.

Included will be a group of clay vases made by Arizona youngsters at an MDA summer camp in the White Mountains with the guidance of Tucson sculptor Curt Brill.

The exhibit will run through Sept. 15, and can be viewed between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. every day in the park gallery at 7366 N. Paseo Del Norte.

Park admission is $5 for adults, $4 for seniors (62 and older), $2 for children, 5-12, and free for park members and children under 5.

The park's art exhibit program is intended to strengthen regional ties and underscore a sense of community.

Samples of the collection can be seen online at www.mdausa.org/commprog/art.

Parker Canyon Lake

In my opinion Parker Canyon Lake is the best kept secret in Southern Arizona. I almost hate to write about it and let the secret out. Just a 30-minute drive from Fort Huachuca's west gate, it is a true oasis in the desert. Admission to the lake for day use is free.

Parker Canyon Lake is a 130-acre, medium sized lake. Lacking the noise and the crowds of some of the more popular lakes, it is a tranquil and serene day-trip destination. A five-mile trail encircles the lakeshore just a few feet from the water, with benches and interpretive signs at some of the vantage points. Birdwatchers will enjoy the ducks, waterfowl, bald eagles, osprey, spring warblers, and hummingbirds that can be sighted at the lake.

Parker Canyon Lake is a popular spot for fishing with a fishing pier, paved boat ramp, and courtesy dock. Boats must be eight horse power single motor or less. The lake offers both warm and cold water species, including stocked rainbow trout and resident largemouth bass, sunfish, channel catfish, and pike. There is a county store at the lake where you can buy a fishing license or rent a boat.

The Lakeview Campground offers 65 campsites with two picnic tables and a grill on each campsite. There are two loops; one favors tents and the other recreational vehicles. Campsites are $10 per evening. Nestled in the Canola hills, far away from the city lights, the view at night is breathtaking as the lake reflects the evening skies. For those of you not inclined towards camping, try one of the local bed and breakfasts in nearby Sonoita.

Buffalo Corral is offering an overnight trail ride to Parker Canyon Lake in August. For additional information, dates, prices, and reservations, call the corral at 533-5220.

Patagonia Lake state park

Located seven miles past Patagonia, off of Highway 82, Patagonia Lake is a large, 265-acre lake offering a wide variety of recreational activities. Patagonia Lake has a beach with a roped-off swimming area and picnic areas with ramadas, tables, and grills. The ramadas fill up quickly during the weekends and summer months, so arrive early to secure a spot.

Hiking and birding are among favorite activities at the lake. There are more than 300 different species of birds that draw birders from all over the world. Pontoon birding tours are offered at 9 a.m. every Saturday morning. Tours fill up fast. Call 287-2791 for more information. Ranger-led birding hikes are free. While at the lake, be sure to check out the beautiful arched wooden bridge that allows hikers to walk from one peninsula to the other.

Water skiing and jet skiing are extremely popular activities at Patagonia Lake. Because of the summer crowds, water skiing and jet skiing are prohibited on weekends and holidays from May 1 through September 31.

Patagonia Lake is home to crappie, bass, bluegill, catfish and is stocked with rainbow trout during the winter. Some of the best fishing times are at sunrise and at dusk. For anglers, the east half of the lake is designated a no wake area. There is even a handicapped accessible fishing dock. The marina store is open seven days a week for fishing licenses, bait, ice and boat rentals.

Camping facilities include 72 developed sites, 34 sites with water and electric hookup and 12 camping sites that can only be accessed by boat. During the busy summer months, campgrounds are usually full by 5 p.m. on Fridays. Camping ranges from $15 per night for developed sites with a picnic table, grill, and possibly a ramada, to $22 per night for a site with water and electricity.

Patagonia Lake state park is open for day use from 4 a.m. - 10 p.m. Daily admission is $7 per carload. Currently the park is offering a 50 percent discount on admission for active duty identification card holders.

Next week I'll write about Coronado National Monument. It's right down the road from us, and has an amazing history.

Fort supports holiday celebration in Sierra Vista

Fort Huachuca and Sierra Vista community organizations are planning great festivities in the 36th annual Sierra Vista Fourth of July celebration on Friday, in Veterans' Memorial Park.

Displays will include an unmanned aerial vehicle, complete with its ground control station and ground data terminal, and the TLQ-17A

(a hostile communications jammer). The displays will be manned so soldiers can explain how the equipment works.

Events at the park begin at 7 p.m., tomorrow, with a street dance featuring the band "Train Wreck."

Friday, the celebration runs from 6:30 a.m. to late in the evening, with something for the whole family.

The Fraternal Order of Police start the day with a pancake breakfast at 6:30 a.m.

At 8 a.m., the annual "Pets and People" parade will begin at the corner of Fry Boulevard and Coronado Street and end at the park. Awards for the winning participants will be presented at the Veterans' Park band shell following the parade.

Entertainment will begin at 9:30 a.m. and last throughout the day with performances by the Rickety Rockettes, Linda Dalling's Traveling School of Voice, J in Jazz and CW's Wells Fargo Band.

From 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., there will be a formal presentation of dignitaries, followed by the presentation of colors, and the singing of the national anthem. Sierra Vista Mayor Tom Hessler will deliver a proclamation, and soldiers will fire cannon in honor of each of the nation's 50 states.

Evening events begin at 7 p.m. in the Domingo-Paiz and Stone sport complex.

The 36th Army Band will perform an opening concert, followed by introductions and the presentation of colors and singing of the national anthem.

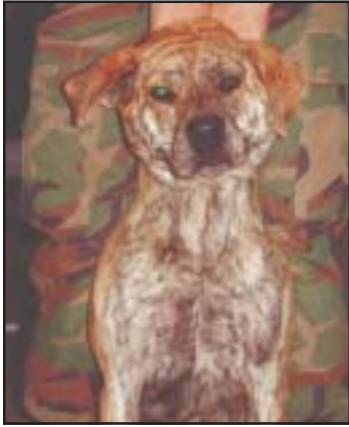

As the main portion of the evening's entertainment, the band will perform the "1812 Overture" and "Stars and Stripes."

The concert will be simulcast on AM 1420 KTAN. The evening will end with a traditional fireworks display.

DECA operates a worldwide chain of nearly 280 commissaries providing groceries to military personnel, retirees and their families in a safe and secure shopping environment. Authorized patrons purchase items at cost plus a 5 percent surcharge, which covers the price of building new commissaries and modernizing existing ones. Shoppers save an average of more than 30 percent on their purchases compared to commercial prices - savings worth more than $2,400 annually for a family of four. A core military family support element, and a valued part of military pay and benefits, commissaries contribute to family readiness, enhance the quality of life for America's military and their families, and help recruit and retain the best and brightest men and women to serve their country.

Rabies concerns outlined by county health officials

Since the first of the year, 14 animals have tested positive for rabies in Cochise County. The continuing drought has driven animals from their normal ranges in search of water. The animals come in closer contact with each other, giving the disease has a greater chance of spreading among them. Drought conditions also mean wild animals are more likely to come in contact with people.

If you come in contact with any animal that acts sick or aggressive leave the area and call the Cochise County Sheriffs office at 432-9500. During weekdays, you can call Arizona Game and Fish in Tucson, Ariz. at 628-5376. The county health department also has numbers you can call: 800-423-7271 or 432-9899.

Comedy show set for July 12

No Clownin' Entertainment will present three nationally touring comics at La Hacienda Club July 12, at 10 p.m. Co-headliners will be Scotty Goff from "Laffs" in Tucson, who has been referred to as "one of the most energetic and hilarious comics of all time," and Ben Creed. Creed is a "powerhouse performer" who has spent more than 20 years on stage entertaining audiences coast-to-coast. Also featured will be special guest performer Michelle Fable. Fable is a New Jersey native, with a sense of humor that packs a punch. Her comedy is described as "straight out of left field--you won't even see it coming."

The show is open to the public and includes adult entertainment, so you must be 18 or older to attend.

Tickets are $12 in advance and $15 at the door per person and are on sale at La Hacienda, MWR Box Office and Sierra Vista Safeway. Call 533-3802 for more information.

Desert Lanes

Every Friday and Saturday night, 7 - 11 p.m., Desert Lanes presents Rock 300. There will be DJs periodically. The cost is $12 to bowl and includes shoes. Non-bowlers pay a $5 cover charge.

"Mystery Bowl 2" is in progress at Desert Lanes and continues through July 31. It's a chance to win great weekly prizes, plus two grand prize vacation packages.

All you have to do to enter is bowl a game or make a purchase at Desert Lanes. Every time you do, you'll receive a Mystery Bowl entry form. Just fill it out and drop it in the box. A drawing will be held every Friday. In the weekly drawings, you could win a Brunswick Viz-A-Ball bowling ball, a Brunswick double roller bag, CD players, radios, bowling towels and more.

The weekly winning entries will be submitted to be included in the national drawing, made up of entries from all participating military bowling centers, for the two grand prize resort vacation packages.

Be sure to stop in at Desert Lanes and take advantage of this opportunity to win these great prizes. This event is sponsored by MWR, the Government and Armed Forces Travel Cooperative, Brunswick and the U.S. Army Community and Family Support Center.

For more information, call Randy Carter 533-2849.

Youth soccer camp

Summer soccer camps for youth 5 - 15 will be held weekly beginning Mondays, July 7, 14, 21 and 28. The camps teach basic soccer fundamentals. Cost is $25 per week. To register, call 533-3205.

Weekend camper rental

During the month of July, MWR Rents is offering any weekend camper rental for just $60.

For more information, call 533-6707

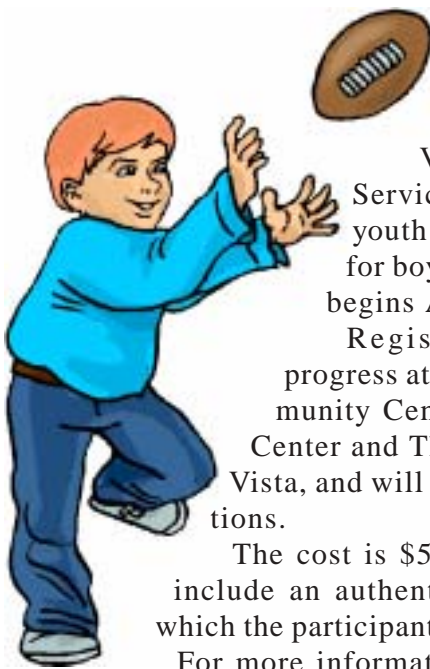

Youth flag football

The City of Sierra Vista Parks & Leisure Services will hold an NFL youth flag football program for boys and girls 6-14. Play begins Aug. 9.

Registration is now in progress at the Oscar Yrun Community Center, the Ethel Berger Center and The Cove, all in Sierra Vista, and will end July 15 no exceptions.

The cost is $55 per youth and will include an authentic NFL game jersey which the participants will be able to keep.

For more information, call Vickie Bernard at 533-3205 or Jack King at 458-7922.

Keep cool at post pools

The summer heat has arrived, and the 4th of July holiday weekend is almost here.

Can you think of a better way to beat the heat and enjoy the summer than to visit one of Fort Huachuca's three great swimming pools?

Irwin pool's regular hours of operation are: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.; Tuesday, 11 a.m.- 7 p.m. Tuesdays from 4 - 7 p.m. are family nights with special rates.

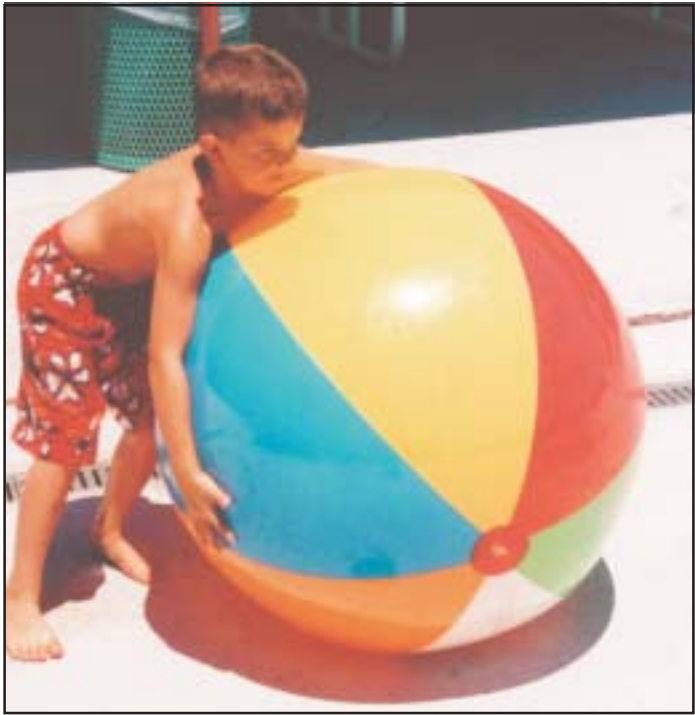

Grierson pool is open every Saturday and Sunday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

There are no other open swim times at Grierson, since it is used for swimming lessons during the week.

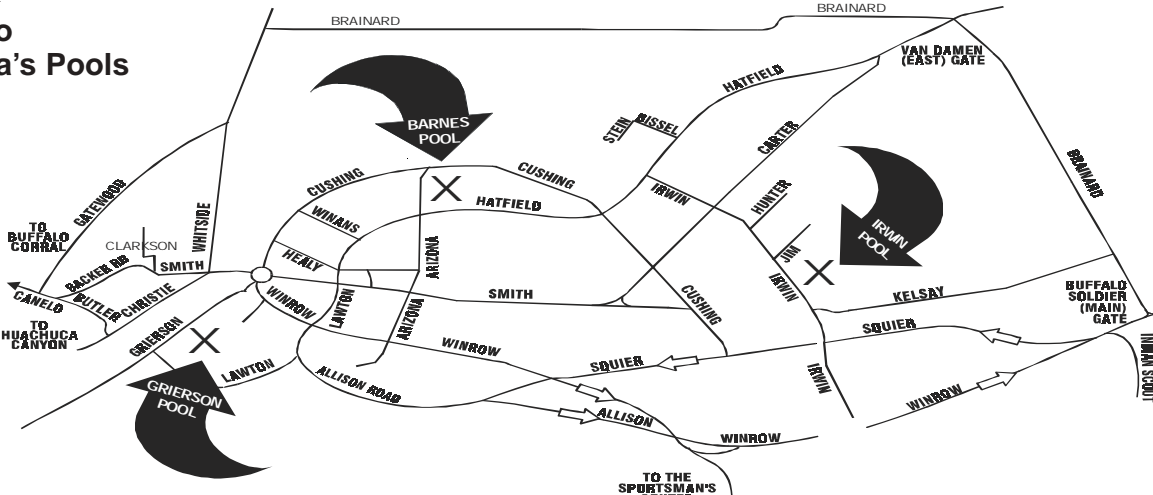

Barnes indoor pool is open 5 a.m.- 4 p.m. weekdays. Barnes pool is closed Saturdays and Sundays, except for Saturdays, 9 a.m.- 10 a.m. for water aerobics.

The fees are: adults (18 and older) $2; children (3-17) $1; and under 2, free. At Barnes pool only, active duty and retirees are admitted free.

Pools may be reserved for pool parties, unit gatherings and birthday parties. Call Karlie Jo Hale at 533-3858 for prices and reservations.

RPM Car Center is the place to take your car for a simple oil change or a major engine overhaul. The facility offers tools, equipment and instruction in a wide variety of automotive repair works. Equipment ranges from engine analyzer to hydraulic lifts, valve grinders, welding shop, paint and body repair, motorcycle repair, maintenance work and so much more. The shop also works with insurance clams.

The shop has a full service paint and body shop that can be rented out on a per day basis, or you can leave your car and have it painted by the employees at the shop.

You do not need to be a military identification card holder to use the facilities; it is open to the public.

"If there is anything that needs to be done to your car, you can come in and do it yourself or you can leave it with us and we will do it for you," said Herbie Villalobos, mechanic.

The shop has the capacity to hold up to 15 cars that are being worked on. There is also a storage lot where cars that are being worked on can be stored.

Fees and service charges for use of equipment and bays are posted in the shop. For safety reasons no one under the age of 10 will be allowed in the work area. Stop by and check it out or call 538-2155 for more information.

The car care center is located at 71810 Jim Avenue on Fort Huachuca.
